- Access to publications/information.

We do not have the resources to have all our publicly available information translated into community languages where necessary. However, where tenants have been identified with special communication needs (e.g. inability to read English or illiteracy) arrangements will be made to ensure that any information is understood. Such arrangements may include:

- Liaison with welfare/referral services
- Availability of the documentation in community languages if possible
- Use of interpreters (e.g. telephone interpreter service)
- To improve the access of people where English is a second language, professional interpreter services will be used wherever appropriate and possible
- Clients are welcome to bring friends, family or advocates of their choice to any meeting with Coodjimbingurra HOME, but it is the preference of Coodjimbingurra HOME, wherever possible, to use a professional interpreting community mentor

Where our tenants insist on the use of a non-professional interpreter known to the tenant, we may engage an independent interpreter to assist.

3.6 Confidentiality and Privacy

We will abide by all relevant state and federal privacy legislation and, except where specific consent is given for the release of information to other parties, we will maintain the confidentiality and privacy of tenants in all matters relating to their tenancy. The only persons who will have access to tenant files or tenant information will be:

- Staff
- The tenant
- The full Director/s of Directors in limited circumstances (e.g. disputes/ serious breaches of policy that may lead to termination of the tenancy)

- External support agencies or individuals where the tenant has consented to the provision of information being given to that agency; and
- Department of Communities and Justice through the completion of the Consent to exchange information between support workers/service providers DH0145

Tenants may access their records at any time by giving reasonable notice. Copies of any information held on their files shall be provided to tenants unless the provision of information may compromise the confidentiality of third parties – in such circumstances, staff will rely on the principles of The NSW Freedom of Information, and any other national relevant legislation to determine access.

Tenants will be provided with a written statement about privacy when they sign up to become a tenant and will be asked to sign a form agreeing that they have sighted the statement and understand their rights and responsibilities with regards to privacy.

3.7 Exclusions to Policy

The only time that we shall disclose information about a tenant without their explicit consent is when we are legally obliged to do so (e.g. to Centrelink following formal request or as directed by a Court Order) or in circumstances whereby we have a duty of care to do so.

We will ensure we adhere to the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (NSW), the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002 (NSW), the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 (NSW) and the Housing Act 2001 (NSW).

These Acts govern:

- what information we can collect and how we collect it
- how we must store and protect your personal and health information
- how we can use and disclose your information including special protection for health and other sensitive information.

3.8 Director/s Access to Information

The Director shall only be given access to a tenant's information where this is acceptable under the Privacy legislation or where a tenant has consented to the release of information. Generally, the only circumstances where information about tenants will be released to the Director/s of Directors are:

- Where required under law or where there are reasonable grounds (e.g. duty of care) for information to be disclosed.

We recognise our obligation to provide volunteers with meaningful work that involves clearly defined tasks, appropriate training, and ongoing evaluation.

Student and work experience placements will be considered on a case-by-case basis by the Operations Manager.
